Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

The following pertains to an option of "one-year residencies" that are offered for alternative candidates under the direct supervision of certified teachers. One semester of student teaching is no longer an option in Louisiana. The Louisiana Board of Elementary Education's Bulletin 996: Standards for Approval of Teacher Preparation and/or Educational Leader Preparation Programs states that Alternative programs may offer an option of one-year residencies in a public or approved non-public school classroom in the certification area with a teacher of record who holds a valid level 1, 2, 3, type A, or type B teaching certificate in the area for which the candidate is pursuing certification. Alternative programs may also offer this as an option. For certification in B-K, PK-3, 1-5, or 1-5 integrated to merged, candidates must spend a minimum of 80 percent of the residency school site's instructional time each week engaged in residency activities. For certification in K-12, 4-8, 6-12, 4-8 integrated to merged or 6-12 integrated to merged, candidates must spend a minimum of 60 percent of the residency school site's instructional time each week in the first semester and 80 percent of the residency school site's instructional time each week in the second semester engaged in residency activities. Teacher preparation providers may seek approval to offer an innovative residency model that does not meet the minimum instructional time requirements but meets a specific workforce need and includes high-quality clinical experiences throughout the program and intensive clinical experiences throughout the residency year.

Enrollment and Program Completers

In each of the following categories, provide the total number of individuals enrolled in teacher preparation programs for an initial teaching credential and the subset of individuals enrolled who also completed the program during the academic year. (§205(a)(1)(C)(ii))

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Key terms in this section are listed below. Click on the link to view the definition(s) in the glossary.

- Academic Major

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2021-22.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

What are CIP Codes?

☐ No teachers prepared in academic year 2021-22

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2021-22. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

What are CIP Codes?

   ○ No

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

   Curriculum is approved by the Board of Regents, which ensures successful candidates fulfill requirements for initial licensure. Program Completers are deemed highly qualified according to state requirements. In addition, we provide monthly seminars that address best practices and current research as informed by partner district personnel. Also, program providers have established a two-way information sharing system that entails an electronic database of teacher candidates and completers and reported district shortages and current staffing needs. This open communication provides the basis for collaboration around current instructional practices and action research data. All of our program plans of study include coursework related to students with exceptionalities as well as culturally proficient pedagogy and practices. This provides the foundational understanding for differentiation and meeting the needs of all learners. Conversely, all teacher candidates pursuing a special education certification are required to receive dual certification in general elementary or a secondary content area.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. (§205(a)(1)(B))

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact RTI's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Summary Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. (§205(a)(1)(B))

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact RTI's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Special education courses included in the program (CURR 5004, SPED 5002, SPED 5005, SPED 5006) focus on culturally relevant pedagogical practices that increase success for students with special learning needs. Candidates apply these strategies in supervised lesson delivery. Faculty provide guidance and support through lesson observation analyses and feedback as well as simulation experiences and case studies. Candidates learn to respond to special learner characteristics by planning adaptive/accommodating strategies that will be applicable in tiered instructional design, and they receive training in interpretation of evaluation results for instructional planning.These courses familiarize candidates with characteristics of disabilities and accommodation strategies to implement in the general education classroom. Candidates learn about RTI and the referral/IEP process and the role(s) they will play in the process and have opportunities to create and teach.Candidates learn about RTI and the referral/IEP process and the role(s) they will play in the process and have opportunities to create and teach.

Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card (see below). The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The teacher education programs at ULM offer multiple unique opportunities for the candidates.Each is assigned a personal adviser upon entry to the program and receive readily available assistance in navigating their program. Undergraduates begin their school-based experiences during their first years in the program and participate in increasingly responsible supervised teaching assignments throughout their coursework. The program uses a cohort model that is unique compared to programs at other institutions. Classes are small, promoting collaboration among students and providing accessibility to mentoring faculty. Principals have indicated that ULM completers walk into the classroom on their first day knowing how to teach.
