Announcements/Reminders:

Mid-level position announcements:

Dr. Michelle Zagar has been named the Program Director for Faculty Development. Dr. Zagar will administratively report to Dr. Cockerham, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs for Faculty Development issues and her job responsibilities will include responsibility and oversight of COP faculty development. She will also be providing decanal leadership for the Faculty Development Committee. Dr. Zagar has served many years as the leader of faculty development for the College. Please congratulate Dr. Zagar on her new position.

Dr. Roxie Stewart has been named as the Interim Program Director for Interprofessional Education (IPE). Dr. Stewart will also administratively report to Dr. Cockerham, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs for IPE issues and her job responsibilities will include responsibility for the programmatic delivery of the IPE program. Dr. Stewart has served on the IPE Task Force since its inception and will serve as the decanal representative for IPE to the University and regional IPE efforts. Please congratulate Dr. Stewart on her new position.

Dr. Liz Lafitte has been named Program Director of Assessment. Dr. Lafitte will administratively report to Dr. Craft, Associate Dean of Assessment and Administrative Affairs. Her responsibilities will include implementation and oversight of the comprehensive assessment plan that addresses educational outcomes and the development of practice ready students. Her duties also include oversight of the co-curricular plan. Please congratulate Dr. Lafitte on her new position.

Dr. Scott Baggaly has been named Interim Program Director of Accreditation. Dr. Baggaly will administratively report to Dr. Craft, Associate Dean of Assessment and Administrative Affairs. His responsibilities will include implementation and oversight of the comprehensive assessment plan that addresses programmatic components and collaboration with faculty, staff, students, and administrators to execute the plan in compliance with ACPE requirements.

We expect to open a search next spring to fill the two Interim positions on a permanent basis.

Faculty Development:

- Introductory and Intermediate Data Analysis for Faculty:
 - o Follow-up from Session 1: The SPSS database resulting from completion of assignments 1 & 2 and the final data analysis output (assignments 3-5) are posted in the Faculty Development Toolbox in the folder labeled "Results from Session 1 Group Assignment."
 - o Session 2: Thursday, September 13; 12pm-2pm; Bienville 110, Shv classroom,
<https://ulm.zoom.us/j/294330119>
 - § Preparatory materials will be in the Faculty Development Toolbox on Moodle.
 - o Session 3: Thursday, October 4; 12pm-2pm, Bienville 110, Shv classroom,
<https://ulm.zoom.us/j/685114335>
 - o Sessions will be recorded and posted in the Media Gallery in the Faculty Development Toolbox.
- Best of 2018 AACP Showcase: Thursday, September 20; 12pm-1pm; Zoom connection info to follow later
 - o Dr. Sampognaro and Dr. Lafitte have volunteered to present, but we have time for a few more. If you attended AACP this year, please consider presenting about a 5-7 minute recap of a great session you attended. We'd love to get feedback from everyone so we can arrange for one an external presenter to visit us for a full discussion of their project or methodology in the future.
