Disagreements. If any disagreement should arise between the Roommates, it is agreed that such issues should be discussed in an open and mutually respectful manner. All Roommates accept that it is within their right to respectfully confront a Roommate if he or she is not fulfilling their part of this Agreement. It is the right of the Roommates to live in a residence free of harassment and discrimination.

If any disagreement cannot be resolved, the Roommates agree to the following procedure:

- 1st – Speak to each other and attempt to resolve the problems amongst themselves;
- 2nd – Contact their RA to inform them of the situation and to help them work out a solution
- 3rd – Contact an administrator in Residential Life to help with a resolution
